ART LEAGUE WORK IS SELLING WELL

The exhibition of the Kilohana Art League will remain open to the public this week only. The table containing the unframed work and Christmas souvenirs has been particularly well patronized, and the card bearing the word "sold" is not wanting from pictures on the walls.

It is to be hoped that future exhibitions will show still more of what Mr. F. S. Molony accomplished during her recent sojourn in Japan. Her three canvases from the land of cherry blossom show a strong and studious handling combined with delicate beauty, and one of them was so much admired by a traveler in Japan that she followed the artist until consent for purchase was gained. It was fortunate that these pictures reached here just in time for the exhibition, which different visitors have declared to be one of the best the League has given.

The deep sea pictures of Pacific blue presented by Mr. A. R. Gurrey are refreshing. Dr. Hutchinson is represented by one wave crest, whereas others in his style would be welcome. The artistic postal cards were purchased as soon as sent in, and Mrs. Marshall's inimitable fish have not only been admired but received patronage. If the League could have accessible rooms and an exhibit running throughout the year, it should prove a valuable factor in Hawaiian promotion.

MISS AKINA MAKES A HIT

A heavy downpour caused Kapellmeister Berger to curtail the second half of last night's band concert at the Hawaiian Hotel.

A feature of the concert was the singing of Miss Akina, the band's new prima donna.

Miss Minnie Akina, despite the wretched weather, was in excellent voice and her selections were warmly applauded. She furnishes a most acceptable successor to Madame Nani Alapai, Miss Lei Lehua and other fair ladies who have sung for the public's delectation and delight.

The concert concluded with "Dixie" and the "Banner," the playing of the former arousing great enthusiasm among the large number of army and navy people present.

TRANSPORT DANCE AT YOUNG HOTEL

Owing to continued heavy rains yesterday the dance arranged for had to be postponed.

Tonight, rain or shine, Quartermaster Captain C. E. Babcock, the officers and ladies on board the Sherman, local army and navy people, and townfolk will be entertained with a dance on the Young roof garden, Kaa's quintet furnishing the dance music. All are welcome.

OAHU'S EXTRA DIVIDEND.

It is said that Oahu Sugar Co. will declare a special dividend of 2 1-2 per cent. tomorrow, in addition to the one-half per cent. regular monthly dividend. Oahu's stockholders are elated. One of them said to an Advertiser reporter that the late rains meant $150,000 to $200,000 benefit to the company.

A thousand Spaniards in Malaga are reported by Immigration Agent Fraser as available for work in the canefields of Hawaii. Investigations are being carried on by the Board of Immigration.
